Eric Ackerman
Vice President Sales & Marketing

Eric Ackerman

The Knight Companies would like to congratulate Eric Ackerman on his promotion to Vice President of Sales & Marketing. A University of Michigan alumni, Eric started with the company in 2000, serving as a technical resource for technical cleaning and chemical management, as well as a capable and reliable sales manager since 2006. His accomplishments include production, quality control, and new product development for metal working fluids, high temperature lubricants and a variety of production chemicals. He has been instrumental in developing and producing new chemical products, automotive components and a host of technical programs for industry. Eric's credentials include work in production and development of some of General Motors most sophisticated racing engines, while using the latest technology and advanced materials and production techniques. He has worked extensively as a problem solver and process developer under extreme deadlines in complex industrial environments.

Corporate Promotions

Corey Fila

The Knight Companies would also like to congratulate Corey Fila on his promotion to Vice President of Operations for Caravan/Knight Facilities Management. Corey started with the company in 1994, working his way up through the ranks of Sanitation Supervisor, Site Manager (1998), and Operations Director (1999). Since 2004, Corey has been working closely with the Chrysler contracts, providing the support needed to elevate them to the level of success they enjoy today, including the implementation of our first third party paint shop operation in the United States.

Recently, Corey obtained his Electrical Contractors License allowing CKFM to provide Electrical Contracting Services to the Delphi Steering Division of Saginaw.

Prior to joining the Knight Companies, Corey owned and operated his own construction company, a background which easily lends itself to the tasks of facilities maintenance he has overseen.
